

Please do not dilute the nocall list any more than it is. It is my belief that NOBODY should be able to invade another's privacy, especially using conveyances paid for by another. I include my phone and my computer at the top of these. These are mine and any use of them by ANYONE else is theft of My resources and privacy.